Carolina Bonaventura and Francisco Forquera

It has been an exciting month at Waverley Homestead commencing with the Launch of "An Intimate Space" featuring tango inspired art by Adrienne Gill, opened by local icon Russell Jeavons. The launch was well attended and sales were excellent on the night.

The exhibition was followed by a Mini Milonga on the eve of the Buenos Aires in the Vales Tango Festival all organised by Adrienne and Andrew Gill. Tapas for the event were wonderfully prepared by Brian Reader and some forty guests enjoyed social dancing in the presence of tango artists Francisco Forquera and Carolina Bonaventura stars of the festival. It was a great night and the dancers enjoyed the ambience as well as the food. Guests were treated to a dance by Francisco and Carolina who were preparing for a hectic three days of classes featuring technical workshops culminating in the Vintage Tango Show and Milonga in the McLaren Vale Institute. Congratulations to Adrienne and Andrew for their work in putting together the Festival and STARS was thrilled to be a part of the event. Thanks to Brian Reader for the excellent tapas.

STARS WARM UP WITH ART AND JAZZ IN JUNE

Southern Theatre and Arts Supporters present "Winter at Waverley Homestead in June" commencing with "Elements" an exhibition by Sonia Unwin to be opened by Olga Sankey who is the Program Director: Visual Arts (Honours) at The SA School of Art, UniSA as well as being a practising artist. Both are well known identities in the art world in Adelaide. Sonia has exhibited widely throughout the State and her use of bright colour is a feature of her work.

The Exhibition opens on Saturday 2 June at 6.30 pm and will continue on Saturdays from 11.00 am to 3.00 pm until 30 June.

"A Tribute to Duke Ellington"

Adelaide Cabaret pianist Chris Martin who accompanied Sidonie Henbest at Waverley Homestead last year will be returning to STARS in June and this time will present "A Tribute to Duke Ellington" together with two other musicians.
