Editorial

The Cancer Council Morning Tea hosted by Nancy Weisbrodt and the STARS Committee was the most successful one yet. A happy crowd of around fifty enjoyed the Autumnal theme and great food that Nancy and friends prepared. The raffle was well supported and the winner re-donated the Comquat Tree which was auctioned at a great price. Thanks to Margaret Pearce for donating a Pink Shovel which was also auctioned and added to the overall amount raised this year. $1000 has been sent to The Cancer Council and thanks to Nancy for her efforts as well as the entertainment afforded to the guests. Nancy's Burley poem caused much hilarity and can be read by visiting the STARS website. Thank you to Brian Reader for male presence as well as his donation of a Tango Figure as a raffle prize.

On Sunday 27 May as part of "About Time History Month" Chris John, Elliot Howard and Julia Mayer presented C J Dennis "The Bloke". This comical and poignant story told in rhyme and song was well received by the audience and the Splash Theatre Company is to be congratulated for the slick presentation by three wonderful professionals. They commented that STARS audience was very receptive and warm; something that they much appreciated. The cast stayed for the sausage rolls, tea and cake and the afternoon was a great success. Thanks to Trevor Beneke for his sausage rolls, what a Treasure!

On Saturday 2 June "Elements" an art exhibition by Sonya Unwin was opened by Olga Sankey and well attended by a large group of supporters largely from Adelaide who enjoyed the colourful art. Sonya has a large following and some large works as well as unframed water colours were purchased. The night was a great success and Sonya's work will be in the gallery each Saturday from 11.00 am to 3.00 pm until 30 June .
