Desiree Moore 10 September 2014

About 13 years ago when we were running The Chocolate Box, an energetic and passionate lady called Desi was one of the frequent visitors there, either coming back from quilting or some other activity in Aldinga always enthusiastic about life and we had a lovely relationship where we talked about everything especially dancing, our joint passion. I have always had the picture of Desi and Bob dancing around the kitchen as was their want.

When I joined STARS it was a great pleasure to see Desi and Bob in the front row humming along to the music and smiling and laughing along with the artist. Many a time Desi and I had a little jig just to keep us going. When we had Liana Vargas teaching Flamenco for a period of time, Desi was my partner for the various Spanish dances and even at her advancing age of around 80 she stole the show.

Desi and Bob supported STARS in many ways and for this I am extremely grateful, their presence at functions always added to the ambience of the event. I have a beautiful photo of Desi at one of our Melbourne Cup luncheons looking stunning as always.

Only the last few months could we see her fragility which I noticed when I gave her a hug. I thank you Desiree for showing me how passionate and elegant one can be and I want you to know that we will look after Bob for you.

The afternoon will include readings from the anthology and feature well-known guest poets, David Cookson and Louise Nicholas whose work has been published widely.
