Lucinda Moon - Baroque Violin

Lucinda commenced baroque violin studies in 1993 with Sigiswald Kuijken at the Royal Conservatorium in The Hague. In 1996, she was a prizewinner in the Musica Antiqua competition (Bruges) with the Dutch-based ensemble, Les Quatre. Lucinda was concertmaster of the Australian Brandenburg Orchestra from 1995-2008 and has performed, recorded and featured in live broadcasts with many Australian-based groups including the Elysium Ensemble, Salut! Baroque and Festival Baroque Australia (WA). In 2010, she was invited to present a series for the Adelaide Festival of Arts titled, Illuminations of the Heart: Joy, Sorrow and Glory. This series combined the Rosary Sonatas of Heinrich von Biber with classical music of the Ottoman court (performed by Melbourne's Nefes Ensemble). This series was generously supported by STARS. Overseas, Lucinda has appeared in Festivals in Sweden, Germany and Mexico. She has performed with the Orchestra of the 18th Century in Poland and The Netherlands, and from 2003–2006 appeared regularly as guest director and soloist with the Pacific Baroque Orchestra in Vancouver.

Glenys March - Harpsichord

Highly regarded as both teacher and performer of Baroque repertoire, Glenys appears regularly on the Adelaide concert platform. She is a founding member and harpsichordist with Ensemble Galante, and also performs with Adelaide Baroque, Adelaide Chamber Singers and the Adelaide Symphony Orchestra. She has also been involved in live broadcasts for ABC Classic FM.

Glenys completed graduate studies with John O'Donnell at the Victorian College of the Arts, specialising in organ, harpsichord and baroque performance practice. An Australia Council award enabled further study in Europe with eminent organist and musicologist Luigi Tagliavini.

She has performed in numerous festivals both locally and interstate. Recent notable performances include the 2013 Storm Music concerts, presented by Ensemble Galante in association with the Art Gallery of South Australia's current Turner from the Tate exhibition, and the inaugural Adelaide Fringe concert by newly formed Ensemble Adelaide.

Engagements in 2012 included performances of JS Bach's St John Passion with the Adelaide Chamber Singers and Sydney Chamber Choir at Sydney University and as part of the Adelaide Festival of Arts, the Coriole Music Festival with Lucinda Moon and The Song Company, and concerts with Ensemble Galante in the Adelaide Fringe and the Ngeringa Farm series. Glenys was also guest harpsichordist with the acclaimed Elysium Ensemble as part of their Melbourne Recital Centre series.

Glenys currently tutors in early music performance at the Elder Conservatorium of Music and teaches privately and at various Adelaide secondary schools.

SALA

“Evolve” by Céline Donegan

Launch by Petra de Mooy

Publishing Editor and Managing Director of “Fleurieu Living”

Saturday 3 August 6.30 pm

Call 83238386 for catering purposes

The exhibition will be open each Saturday and Sunday from 11.00 am to 3.00 pm until 31 August 2013

SA Life will profile Celine's exhibition in its magazine; she is one of six artists chosen from hundreds in South Australia, STARS Committee is very pleased with this publicity of Waverley Homestead and Celine.

Dance Workshop

SHOW HALL WILLUNGA

SATURDAY 28 SEPTEMBER – 2.00 pm to 5.00 pm

Due to the great success of last years Rumanian/Australian Dance workshop Rae Marnham will return to Willunga with some Bulgarian dances which she will perform in costume with her dance group. The group will then conduct a teaching session to enable participation by guests. The event will be held in the Show Hall which has a wooden floor to assist in the performance and of course give the participants more room to dance. There will also be some Latino and other forms of dance introduced this year.

Entrance will be $10.00 and bookings on 83238386

Winter Concert No. 2

MINAS BERBERYAN AND QUARTET

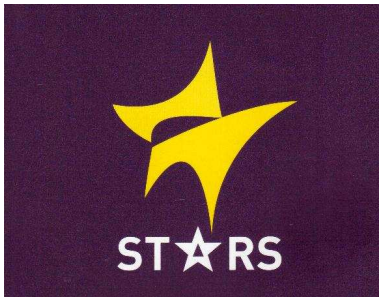

Sunday 1 September 2013 at 2.30 pm

Tickets $35.00 (members $30.00) includes afternoon tea

Minas is popular with STARS members and this time will bring a string quartet playing the music of Mozart, Beethoven and Piazzolla. He is currently overseas; further details of the concert will be given in the next newsletter

Review

The first winter concert for the year was held on Sunday 30 June and featured the gracious Lucinda Moon and Glenys March with baroque violin and harpsichord. The program of baroque music was made interesting with explanations by the two performers. It was a lovely concert, the highlight for many in the audience being the finale, Vivaldi's Four Seasons. The concert was followed with the audience enjoying afternoon tea with the artists. STARS Committee is grateful for the support of such wonderful artists and looks forward to a return performance soon.
