STARS Annual General Meeting

STARS AGM was held on Tuesday March 11 the guest speaker was Graham Ormsby co-ordinator of the Willunga 175th Celebrations. He presented an historic overview of the position of Willunga when Goolwa was the main port of Adelaide and why geographically it was such an important town to the State. Graham outlined the many and varied plans for the 175 year including STARS involvement in the Black Tie Event on June 21. STARS committee’s involvement will be to organise entertainment for the event and plans are well underway for this highlight of the year.

Carolyn Colling thanked Graham for his attendance.

Re-elected to the Committee for the year were:

President; Carolyn Colling

Vice President and Treasurer; Peter Elder

Secretary; Elizabeth Boydell

Members; Camille Maple, Tess Driver, Joan Lunn

Jon Tidemann and Wayne Anthony

Catriona Barr

Script by Ewart Shaw
Mezzo Soprano, Catriona Barr
Baritone, Mario Bellanova
Soprano, Gisele Blanchard
Piano, Jamie Cock
Costumes, Judith Branford

The world premiere of this unique show was performed at State Opera's Opera Studio on 20 October 2013

“Join us as the disbarred and somewhat libertine priest Lorenzo da Ponte meets Mozart in his studio and persuades him to write the music for the “Marriage of Figaro”, “Così fan Tutte” and “Don Giovanni”. Three singers will take on several roles and perform staged excerpts of the operas while Ewart Shaw takes the part of Lorenzo da Ponte and Jamie Cock, at the piano, becomes Mozart himself. Come and enjoy a glimpse into the creative process that produced three of the greatest operas ever written; all tied together with a new original script written by Ewart Shaw.”
